

Wood Destroying Pests

Insects and Organisms that feed on and damage wood; other pests that are associated with wood.

Carpenter bees and Carpenter Ants are not considered true "wood destroying organisms" but are included here for those seeking information on pests that damage wood in and around their homes. True wood destroying pests actually digest or eat wood. Powder post beetles (powderpost beetles) and termites are very common pests of wood and furniture.

Carpenter Ants Carpenter Bees Old House Borer Powderpost Beetles Termites

Wood Decay Fungi White Rot Brown Rot Dry Rot